

I am categorically opposed to any action that allows companies with whom I do business to call me as often they wish. I am please with the Indiana Attorney General's No Call List. It has dramatically reduced my unwanted phone calls. Many businesses that I do business with at this time already abuse my time. Weakening the current No Call List will only encourage more abuse of my time.